SAN FRANCISCO FEDERAL CREDIT UNION AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS

San Francisco, Calif. (June 5, 2009) – San Francisco Federal Credit Union has awarded $1,000 scholarships to four graduating seniors from San Francisco high schools.

San Francisco FCU awards scholarships based on the student's academic achievement, personal integrity and active participation at their schools and in their local communities. We are pleased to award four $1,000 scholarships to the following students in 2009:

- Fatima A. Avellan (Mercy High School) – Attending Occidental College
- Jessica Chai (George Washington High School) – Attending University of California, Berkeley
- Allyson J. Lam (Lowell High School) – Attending University of California, Berkeley
- Scott J. Lee (Lowell High School) – Attending University of Pennsylvania

San Francisco FCU began its scholarship program in 2000 and has given out $40,000 to local college-bound students since inception.

About San Francisco Federal Credit Union

San Francisco Federal Credit Union is a not-for-profit, community-based financial institution exclusively serving San Francisco since 1954. Today, anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in San Francisco may apply for membership. Currently, we serve more than 30,000 members and have over 780 million dollars in assets. We receive an ongoing superior five-star rating from BauerFinancial, INC., a renowned independent agency that analyzes the financial conditions of credit unions. Five stars is the highest attainable rating, and we have earned and sustained this rating for over 14 years.

San Francisco Federal Credit Union strives to be good neighbors and active contributors to the San Francisco community. Through their CommunityShare Program started in October 2002, San Francisco Federal Credit Union's commitment is to give back to the community it serves.
