SAN FRANCISCO FEDERAL CREDIT UNION HOSTS COAT DRIVE

San Francisco (December 2008) – In anticipation of the cold winter season, San Francisco Federal Credit Union is hosting a Coat Drive. All donated coats will be distributed to the San Francisco homeless living in shelters and on the streets via The Women's Community Clinic. On December 11th, 2008, new President/CEO, Steven Stapp delivered several barrels of coats to the Women's Community Clinic. More coats are on the way, as gently used or new coats from now until January 5th, 2009 will continue to be collected at our three San Francisco FCU branches: 770 Golden Gate, 2645 Ocean Avenue, and 4375 Geary Boulevard.

"San Francisco FCU is committed to the relationship it has with the San Francisco community. We are proud to make a difference in the community we serve," said Steven Stapp, President/CEO.

The Women's Community Clinic's mission is to improve health by providing free, respectful, quality care for women, by women. They believe that preventive, educational care is essential to lifelong health and is best achieved in a safe, welcoming environment that encourages women to seek the care they need.
